Kingaroy Show Society Inc

Rules & Regulations

1. Entry Fees, as stated in each section.
2. All livestock must be in Show condition
3. Members and Judges will be admitted to the grounds on production of their membership card or passes. All persons not Members shall pay for admittance to the Show to the sum prescribed unless otherwise provided with a pass from the Secretary.
4. All exhibits must remain at the Show until the section's Chief Steward approves the removal of same, or prize money forfeited.
5. Awards will be made in all classes unless otherwise specified, if the exhibit is deemed of sufficient merit, and should any person make any entered as non-competitive by the Secretary. The committee reserves the right to receive such exhibits if the space permits, if of sufficient merit for the exhibition purposes only.
6. In all classes of single entry, it shall be at the discretion of the Judge to award a prize, if exhibit is deemed by Judge to be of sufficient merit.
7. Exhibits are not allowed to compete in classes and afterwards in collections.
8. No entry fee necessary for Championships in any section, and only first and second prize animals will be eligible for championships. No animal allowed to compete in Championship unless entered in class.
9. Exhibitors when called upon by the steward or Committee shall prove the correctness of their certificate of entry.
10. Any exhibitor refusing or preventing awards to be affixed, interfering with Show Officials, refusing to obey instructions of the Stewards, interfering with exhibits or detention of exhibits, or Society's property, may render him or herself liable to disqualification for a period not exceeding three (3) years. Abusive language and insulting behavior, willfully making wrong entry of exhibit or competitor, entry of fraudulent exhibitor to be disqualified for five (5) years.
11. The Society reserves the right of refusing to admit any exhibit to the grounds where there is a reason to suspect it is either diseased or dangerous, or to remove any such exhibit from the exhibition.
12. Exhibitors will be required to make their own arrangements for feeding stock, but water will be provided on the grounds
13. The Society will not under any circumstances hold itself liable for any accident on the grounds or premises.

14. Exhibitors and persons admitted to the grounds shall be subject to the Rules and Regulations and the Orders of the Stewards.
15. Any exhibitor removing his exhibit from the stall allocated without the consent of the stewards will be disqualified from competing.
16. The Society will not under any circumstances hold itself liable for any accident, loss, damage or non-delivery of exhibits at the Society's Show, and it shall be a condition of entry that each exhibitor shall hold the Society blameless and indemnify it against any legal proceedings arising through any accidents, loss, non-delivery or damage whatsoever.
17. No Steward, Officer or Member of the Committee wearing the Society's badge shall lead, bring into the ring, or hold an exhibit before a Judge, while same is being judged. Breach of this rule shall disqualify the exhibit.
18. The Steward will see that all animals competing will have a label or card with the number written legibly thereon, and that the judges be furnished with an award paper corresponding with the number of the label or card. They will also supply them with badges and afford them all information and attention necessary for the discharge of their duties.
19. Competitors in jumping and trotting events must wear costume approved by Stewards.
20. No ribbon other than those won at the current Show is to be worn or displayed at the showgrounds, but such ribbons may be affixed to stall after final judging.
21. Protests may be lodged at the Secretary's office in writing with the fee of $20 not later than one (1) hour after the judging of the event, in which the protest is to be made. If the protest is considered frivolous by the Committee, the deposit shall become forfeited to the Secretary.
22. No stock shall be permitted to run loose on the grounds during the show days and nights, unless by permission of the Stewards or Secretary.
23. Dogs, other than those owned by members of the Canine Control Council, must be kept in closed float or vehicle or else on a short leash and must be suitably muzzled as to prevent it being able to injure or bite any person or other animal.
24. The prizes will be paid within 30 days by the committee, who will require a signature of acceptance for same. All prize money not claimed, or prize cheques not presented by 30th June of this current year immediately following the Show will revert to Society funds unless special arrangements are made with the Secretary.
25. Conditions of Competition: The By-laws and Regulations of the Queensland Chamber of Agriculture Societies By-laws or Regulations comprised herein, shall be the condition of competition and all exhibitors and competitors shall make their entries or enter into competition on this express condition.

26. In the event where insufficient entries are received the Society reserves the right to cancel the competition or reduce the advertised prize money.
27. Judges have the power to withhold any prize if they consider the exhibit of insufficient merit.
28. Any exhibitors/competitors intending to bring electrical equipment to the Showgrounds will be required to ensure that such equipment is fitted with residual current protection and that all electrical leads, tools and appliances have been tagged and tested. The use of double adaptors is prohibited, and all power boards must be tested and tagged.
29. All cattle must comply with health requirements as stipulated by Biosecurity Queensland.
30. Any animal, which in the opinion of the Stewards is not in a fit state to be exhibited, may be rejected by them and debarred from competing in the class or classes for which it is entered. Any animal rejected must be removed from the Showgrounds as soon as the exhibitor is notified.
31. Calves to be entered in a single class or with mother only.
32. All cattle under 6 months to be led by a halter. All cattle over 6 months must be led by a halter and nose rings or nose grips and all bulls over 12 months must be led by a halter and nose ring. All stock must always be in the charge of the exhibitor or his representative.
33. Trucks and floats will be admitted to the grounds for unloading and MUST be removed from ramp area and Pony Club area for parking on boundary fence area.
34. Beef Cattle: must water from designated beef cattle watering points.
35. Exhibitors not possessing a pass pay gate entrance fee on show but not for delivery and collecting of entries.
36. Any difficulties delivering or collecting exhibits on the due dates or times, please phone the Section Chief Steward to make other arrangements. (No exhibits to be left at Secretary's Office)

Kingaroy Show Society Inc
Invite you to celebrate 117 years

The committee of the Kingaroy Show Society Inc. would like to thank persons and organisations who have donated trophies and prize money for the 2025 Show. Our volunteers work tirelessly to help make the Show Society activities a success, the Committee would like to take this opportunity to thank you all.

Faith Raabe Memorial Trophy
1922 ~ 2005

In 1979, Mick and Faith Raabe retired from the farm at Haly Creek moving to a home in Kingaroy.

This is the time about 23 years ago that she became involved with the Kingaroy Show Society entering cut flowers and pot plants regularly along with her beautiful crocheting and knitting. Over the years she had accumulated numerous trophies and championship ribbons from the Show Society for her efforts.

She was a Steward in the Horticultural Section for several years before becoming a Steward in the Needlework Section.

Gardening had always been one of her passions which she shared with her husband Mick.

She had always been interested in exhibiting entries in the local show before they moved to Kingaroy, but found it too much trouble transporting pot plants, flowers and needlework in from the farm.

I can still remember Mum getting her entries ready days before the show and then piling them into the back seat and boot of her small car. You could hardly see Mum at the steering wheel.

We, the Raabe Family (Glenda Wolski, Allan & Richard Raabe and our families), have much pleasure in donating the Championship Trophy for Crocheting in Memory of our mother.

Joyce Clark Memorial Trophy
1926 ~ 2013

Born Joyce May Pearson on 29th May 1926 on a small crop farm in Benair, outside of Kingaroy. Joyce was the third child of 4 children—a sister Myrtle and brothers Christie who was born both deaf and dumb and Harold who resided with Joyce and her husband on the property until he passed away. Joyce attended school with her siblings at the Benair State School until grade 6. After which she continued to work on the family farm and later in life worked on the sorting table at the Peanut Silos amongst many other jobs.

Joyce met and married William (Bill) Thomas Clark in 1948. Bill was in the army and spent over 1000 days abroad on tours. They were married for over 50 years until Bill passed away in 1998.

Bill and Joyce had 5 children, 4 boys: Trevor, Bevan, Murray and Daniel and 1 girl, Desley. Sadly, Daniel passed away after only a couple of days.

Joyce was known as “Nanna” to many, but especially to her 6 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren who she doted on. Joyce with Bill enjoyed travelling in the younger years in their caravan and red Kingswood around Australia. They were both keen indoor bowls players initially which later led to playing ten pin bowling.

Joyce was extremely talented at both cooking and the needlework craft, particularly crocheting. During her life, Joyce submitted hundreds of cooked items and crocheted pieces to the Kingaroy Show being awarded winner in these categories numerous times. She assisted the Kingaroy Show Society with Judging of various categories over the years also. Joyce also continued a busy social life right up until her passing at 86 years in May 2013. Right up until this time Joyce still frequented the Laurel Club, Pensioners League, QCWA, Cards, Senior Citizens, Guild and Bingo on a regular basis.

It is because of this outgoing nature, tremendous talent and Joyce’s passion that this perpetual trophy has been created to honour such as esteemed and respected woman—her skill, experience and contribution. This trophy is donated by Joyce’s youngest three great grandchildren Eden and Averley Herrod and Vincent Harris who sadly never got to meet their Nanna.

In 1955, Heather moved to Kingaroy from New South Wales after her marriage to local George Wall. She became involved with the Kingaroy Show Society early on as George was a regular competitor at the local and surrounding shows with his trotting horses. Later, their son, Lindsay also competed at Kingaroy Shows with his trotters.

Heather initially became involved as a Steward in the Needlework Section of the Kingaroy Show in 2000 due to her daughter Jenny's interest and then regularly every year from 2002 until 2021. She loved her time spent over at the pavilion with the other Stewards, not only on Judging Day but the days leading up to the show, the weekend of the show and the day all the entries went home. Jenny later took over the role of Chief Steward of this section in 2004 and Heather would go out and support her wherever possible, she will be sadly missed. Heather lost her beloved husband, George in 2006 after 51 years of marriage. They spent many happy years at the show together with their five children, and in the later years Heather had spent time at the show with her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

She was also a passionate and regular exhibitor in the Needlework Sections of Kingaroy, Nanango, Wondai, Blackbutt Shows with her many entries of knitting, ranging from babies' booties, three-piece baby sets, beanies, scarves and jumpers, cardigans and vests to rugs, coat hangers and other types of knitting. Over her years of exhibiting her knitting, Heather has been awarded many prize cards, Champion and Reserve Champion ribbons. Heather would say every year; I won't have much for the Kingaroy Show this time but then would arrive with her striped bags full to the brim with entries that she had worked on from the previous show. This Memorial Shield for Champion Knitting is donated by Heather's family in loving Memory of their mother, Grandmother and Great-Grandmother.
