Rules & Regulations

1. Entry Fees, as stated in each section.
2. All livestock must be in Show condition
3. Members and Judges will be admitted to the grounds on production of their membership card or passes. All persons not Members, shall pay for admittance to the Show to the sum prescribed unless otherwise provided with a pass from the Secretary.
4. All exhibits must remain at the Show until the section's Chief Steward approves the removal of same, or prize money forfeited.
5. Awards will be made in all classes unless otherwise specified, if the exhibit is deemed of sufficient merit, and should any person make any entered as non-competitive by the Secretary. The committee reserves the right to receive such exhibits if the space permits, if of sufficient merit for the exhibition purposes only.
6. In all classes of single entry, it shall be at the discretion of the Judge to award a prize, if exhibit is deemed by Judge to be of sufficient merit.
7. Exhibits are not allowed to compete in classes and afterwards in collections.
8. No entry fee necessary for Championships in any section, and only first and second prize animals will be eligible for championships. No animal allowed to compete in Championship unless entered in class.
9. Exhibitors when called upon by the steward or Committee shall prove the correctness of their certificate of entry.
10. Any exhibitor refusing or preventing awards to be affixed, interfering with Show Officials, refusing to obey instructions of the Stewards, interfering with exhibits or detention of exhibits, or Society's property, may render him or herself liable to disqualification for a period not exceeding three (3) years. Abusive language and insulting behavior, willfully making wrong entry of exhibit or competitor, entry of fraudulent exhibitor to be disqualified for five (5) years.
11. The Society reserves the right of refusing to admit any exhibit to the grounds where there is a reason to suspect it is either diseased or dangerous, or to remove any such exhibit from the exhibition.
12. Exhibitors will be required to make their own arrangements for feeding stock, but water will be provided on the grounds
13. The Society will not under any circumstances hold itself liable for any accident on the grounds or premises.

14. Exhibitors and persons admitted to the grounds shall be subject to the Rules and Regulations and the Orders of the Stewards.
15. Any exhibitor removing his exhibit from the stall allocated without the consent of the stewards will be disqualified from competing.
16. The Society will not under any circumstances hold itself liable for any accident, loss, damage or non-delivery of exhibits at the Society's Show, and it shall be a condition of entry that each exhibitor shall hold the Society blameless and indemnify it against any legal proceedings arising through any accidents, loss, non-delivery or damage whatsoever.
17. No Steward, Officer or Member of the Committee wearing the Society's badge shall lead, bring into the ring, or hold an exhibit before a Judge, while same is being judged. Breach of this rule shall disqualify the exhibit.
18. The Steward will see that all animals competing will have a label or card with the number written legibly thereon, and that the judges be furnished with an award paper corresponding with the number of the label or card. They will also supply them with badges and afford them all information and attention necessary for the discharge of their duties.
19. Competitors in jumping and trotting events must wear costume approved by Stewards.
20. No ribbon other than those won at the current Show is to be worn or displayed at the showgrounds, but such ribbons may be affixed to stall after final judging.
21. Protests may be lodged at the Secretary's office in writing with the fee of $20 not later than one (1) hour after the judging of the event, in which the protest is to be made. If the protest is considered frivolous by the Committee, the deposit shall become forfeited to the Secretary.
22. No stock shall be permitted to run loose on the grounds during the show days and nights, unless by permission of the Stewards or Secretary.
23. Dogs, other than those owned by members of the Canine Control Council, must be kept in closed float or vehicle or else on a short leash and must be suitably muzzled as to prevent it being able to injure or bite any person or other animal.
24. The prizes will be paid within 30 days by the committee, who will require a signature of acceptance for same. All prize money not claimed, or prize cheques not presented by 30th June of this current year immediately following the Show will revert to Society funds unless special arrangements are made with the Secretary.
25. Conditions of Competition: The By-laws and Regulations of the Queensland Chamber of Agriculture Societies By-laws or Regulations comprised herein, shall be the condition of competition and all exhibitors and competitors shall make their entries or enter into competition on this express condition.

26. In the event where insufficient entries are received the Society reserves the right to cancel the competition or reduce the advertised prize money.
27. Judges have the power to withhold any prize if they consider the exhibit of insufficient merit.
28. Any exhibitors/competitors intending to bring electrical equipment to the Showgrounds will be required to ensure that such equipment is fitted with residual current protection and that all electrical leads, tools and appliances have been tagged and tested. The use of double adaptors is prohibited, and all power boards must be tested and tagged.
29. All cattle must comply with health requirements as stipulated by Biosecurity Queensland.
30. Any animal, which in the opinion of the Stewards is not in a fit state to be exhibited, may be rejected by them and debarred from competing in the class or classes for which it is entered. Any animal rejected must be removed from the Showgrounds as soon as the exhibitor is notified.
31. Calves to be entered in a single class or with mother only.
32. All cattle under 6 months to be led by a halter. All cattle over 6 months must be led by a halter and nose rings or nose grips and all bulls over 12 months must be led by a halter and nose ring. All stock must always be in the charge of the exhibitor or his representative.
33. Trucks and floats will be admitted to the grounds for unloading and MUST be removed from ramp area and Pony Club area for parking on boundary fence area.
34. Beef Cattle: must water from designated beef cattle watering points.
35. Exhibitors not possessing a pass pay gate entrance fee on show but not for delivery and collecting of entries.
36. Any difficulties delivering or collecting exhibits on the due dates or times, please phone the Section Chief Steward to make other arrangements. (No exhibits to be left at Secretary's Office)
